and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

As a part of a nation-wide safety campaign of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Hamlin Jaycees will hold a Seat Belt Clinic here this week end. This program was first started in Corvallis, Oregon, last August and the Jaycees there installed 17,000 seat belts in a town of 20,000 people.

The project has grown into a national project and the Hamlin Jaycees are now offering the belt to the people of Hamlin at the low cost of only $6.95 per belt.

While the first step in the program is to get the public to install the belts, it is more important that they use them.

The following article appeared in the July issue of the Texas Law Enforcement Foundation Bulletin, written by Carolyn Seay Bengston for the Austin American. It answers most of the questions as to why the public should use seat belts.

When you read in the paper a person dying of a snake bite or hear of somebody dying of tuberculosis, you become emotionally disturbed. And rightfully so.

Yet each year less than 20 people die of snake bites. And less than 3,000 deaths result from TB.

Meanwhile, however, 40,000 Americans are killed annually in automobile accidents. And more than one and one-half million injuries deprive one and one-half million people of their ability to work—sometimes just for a day, sometimes forever. Material damage runs into the billions of dollars.

But we simply are not aware of automobile deaths in the quantitative aspects, says DR. HEINRICH LAMM, head of the Texas Medical Association's committee on transportation safety.

German-born, Dr. Lamm came to the U.S. 25 years ago and is now a surgeon in Harlingen. At least one of his patients a month is the victim of a car wreck.

He recently spoke in Austin on "How To Keep From Being Killed in an Automobile Accident Without Really Trying." His solution is a simple one: the safety belt. But he knows the problems of convincing people that they MUST wear a safety belt in the car, even when just driving around the block.

"Those of us who have safety belts are well aware of their importance and certainly use them when traveling some distance. But you can get hurt seriously, when driving 20 miles an hour in town," Dr. Lamm insists.

He presented a demonstration with a raw egg. When he placed it in styrofoam and dropped it, the egg didn't break. . . but without the styrofoam, it did.

"Now you obviously can't pack a driver into styrofoam," Dr. Lamm admits, "as you can an egg. You can't even provide the padding that benefits a spaceman."

"But you can fasten the driver to the car, so he can't be tossed around or ejected in case of impact. The car itself can be converted to the armor a driver wears."

Dr. Lamm points out that a safety belt will protect a person from being so severely injured by the three most common parts of the car—the windshield (which causes skull and face injuries), the steering wheel (which causes chest contusions and serious damage to the respiration system) and the dashboard (which causes broken kneecaps and dislocated hips).

But these facts have been known for a long time—for the 10 years or more that Dr. Lamm has faithfully worn one and continuously campaigned for their use. Why don't people accept them more readily? Well, there are eight reasons . . . but Dr. Lamm has an answer for each of them:

1. Statistics prove that you can travel an average of 200 million miles before your number comes up for a serious accident. You think the chances are pretty good nothing is going to happen. But, Dr. Lamm points out, it's only by the

ALL-STATE FOOTBALL TEAM AT BOY'S STATE—Dan Newberry, second from left, front row, was selected as one of the boys to make up the All State Football team at Boy's State held recently in Austin. Out of the 612 boys in attendance, 12 teams with nine on each team were chosen. The All State team was then chosen from the 12 teams. Newberry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Newberry. O. H. Weaver Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Weaver Sr., also attended Boy's State.

Brucellosis Tests To Start in County August 6

Tentative plans call for Brucellosis testing in Jones County to start August 6th, according to word received from Dr. R. M. Zirkle, who heads the program in Texas. As soon as a definite date is set, you will be notified.

Stockmen are reminded that when testing starts in the county, they will be responsible for getting their cattle in pens and for furnishing suitable pens for holding cattle during testing.

You will be sent further information as plans develop for the testing program.

grace of God it hasn't happened already.

2. You think you're a good enough driver not to worry with a seat belt. You've been driving for years without even dented fender. Dr. Lamm insists that you can't rely on the OTHER driver.

3. Seat belts are uncomfortable. "Even if they are, you should still use them," Dr. Lamm insists. "But they AREN'T. With a seat belt, you don't slump so in the car, you don't slide around. After wearing one for two weeks, you're uncomfortable without it."

4. It wrinkles my dress. "That is absolutely right," says the surgeon. "But it's better to be alive in a wrinkled dress than to have a smooth dress in a coffin."

5. It makes people think of danger and death. Dr. Lamm agrees this is unpleasant, but it's worthwhile to stop and realize sometimes that a car is not a toy.

6. Seat belts are too expensive. "They cost between $7 and $10, which isn't very much to pay for safety," says Dr. Lamm.

7. I couldn't extricate myself if I stalled on a railroad track or drove into a lake or if the car caught on fire. The surgeon demonstrated that the belt falls free in a second.

8. They are nuisance. "No argument," says Dr. Lamm. "They are a nuisance. But they're worth it. And soon the seat belt manufacturers will have retractable seatbelts."

If ALL people used them ALL the time, somewhere between 10,000 and 12,000 lives would be saved each year in the United States. Is there any hope that this will come about? "No," he replies. "People aren't smart enough to listen."

If the doctor had his way, seat belts would be hooked in some way to the ignition—it would be impossible to start a car without having the seat-belt fastened. He's talked to engineers about it, and this is possible. But he knows this will never come about.

Something that IS possible, however, (and he is working hard on it) is a law that would require every new car sold in Texas to have seat belts.

After such a law is passed, it takes a decade or more to get the old cars off the highway, but Dr. Lamm is convinced the effort is worth it. He believes people would use the belts if for no other reason than they paid for them.

Jaycee Seat Belt Clinic Opens Sat.

The Hamlin Jaycee Seat Belt Clinic will be open for business Saturday morning in the Hamlin Auto and Tractor Clinic Garage, next door to "Row's Brother's Grocery," according to Charles Absher, project chairman.

As part of a nation-wide safety campaign conducted by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, the local Jaycees are conducting the clinic in an effort to make seat belts available at minimum cost to the people of the Hamlin area. The belts will be installed for only $6.95 per belt.

The clinic will be held from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. on Saturday and from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m. on Sunday. Absher stated that the clinic will be held again the following week end if the demand is great enough.

The belts will be installed while you wait or the Jaycees will offer a pick up and delivery service.

Dr. W. C. Hamrick, regional director of the Texas Association, informed the Jaycees last Thursday that he would like to purchase the first pair of seat belts to be installed.

Bob Craig, Jaycee President, pointed out that the club decided to undertake the project after it was noticed that hardly a day passes but what there is a wreck in the area that kills or injures someone that could have been saved by seat belts.

The belts to be installed are a metal to metal, quick release type buckle, that normally lists for $10.95. It has a 6,000 pound tensile strength, is made of 100% Caprolan Nylon webbing and exceeds Society of Automotive Engineers requirements and Government Specifications.

The belts are of Nylon pebble weave webbing and come in black, gray, red, green, tan and white.

In an effort to answer as many of the questions about seat belts Absher gave the following questions and answers:

"What if I am in a burning or submerged car with my seat belt fastened?" (Answer: Less than one per cent of all injury-producing accidents involve fire or submersion. Even in such instances, chances of remaining conscious in order to free yourself and escape are better with a seat belt.)

"Do you need a seat belt on short trips around town?" (Answer: Yes. More than half of all injury-producing accidents occur in urban areas and ing injury or death occur at speeds below 40 mph.)

"Is there a possibility a belt will break?" (Answer: A good belt may break in a severe crash, but if it does, it will already have done its job. You will land with about a ton and a half less force.)

"Will seat belts prevent all injuries?" (Answer: No, but they will help reduce the severity.)

"Are seat belts comfortable?" (Answer: Yes. And, they promote better posture, substantially reducing fatigue. Both driver and passengers stay in place on normal turns and stops without stiffening back muscles to do so.)

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER PONDER'S STRANGE ABILITY OF RUSSIANS TO WORRY ABOUT THEIR WELL-FED BOSSES

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on route 1 takes a look at Russian agriculture this week. We guess that's what he's doing.

Dear editor:

As everybody knows, if American space scientists were as far ahead of Russian space scientists as American farmers are of Russian farmers, Pope announce the arrival of their grandson born to their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hinkle of Pecos . . . Mrs. C. G. Green left Monday to visit relatives in Wolfe City . . . Mrs. A. B. French and little daughter Laveta Mae, were dismissed from the hospital July 12 . . . Dr. Wiley B. we probably would already have conquered the moon and been eyeing Mars or Venus. In fact, we might have been to those places too and come back saying there's nothing out there worth conquering.

I don't know why this is, unless it's just that farmers are smarter than scientists, although maybe not as well paid. But what brought this up was an announcement last week by Mr. Khrushchev that he was raising the price of meat and butter in Russia by 30 per cent, and what interested me was the little speech the dictator gave following the increase.

"I wouldn't say this is pleasant," he said, "but the people understand that this is far more unpleasant for the Central Committee and for the rest of the government."

Now this type of "understanding" baffles me. If the Russian people can understand how it's more painful and unpleasant to the Communist bosses, who already have all the cars, all the best apartments, and all the best food, to raise prices on food because there's not enough to go around, then they're far more sensitive than the rest of us.

I can see an ordinary Russian walking past a Communist official's and imagining him inside eating a steak and buttering his bread and feeling downright sorry for him because he's eating with the memory still fresh in his mind of having to vote to raise the price of meat and butter by 30 per cent. It's enough to take away his own appetite for the cabbage soup waiting for him in his one-room apartment.

With this type of understanding, there's no limit to what the Russian bosses can pull off. In time though—the Russians may learn that it's easier to order up a space craft than a crop of wheat.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

We all thrill to a...

FAMILIAR TUNE

It is so soothing, comforting, and pleasing to listen to our favorite tunes when played by capable artists. These tunes can make our minds wander back to pleasant memories of days gone by, and also awake us to new joys. Each Sunday we have the opportunity to be thrilled by the preaching of God's word, and the story of God's great love for us. Attend church Sunday and enjoy worshipping God with others.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

After a slump in attendance for the past few Sundays the crowd was back to normal on Sunday. Four visitors were present: Kenny Gray, California, Bruce and Barry Johnson, Amarillo and Doug Elliott, Hamlin.

It was learned that the Rev. Elmer could not come for our revival and the church voted to let the pastor secure someone to work with him. He announced that he had asked the pastor of the Challis church, which is located north of Brownfield, in Terry County, the Rev. Don Crossland.

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

Tuesday morning Rev. Lewis called the reporter and said Rev. Crossland would not be able to come for the revival. Plans are now being worked out to contact another evangelist.

The revival is only a month away, from August 10th through the 19th.

Since this reporter was not here last week and failed to get the news in will report a few items from last week.

Family night was held on Thursday night, June 28, at the park in Hamlin, with a picnic supper. Forty persons attended and a good time was reported by all.

We were sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. M. T. Jones last week. She had been a resident of the Plainview community since her marriage to Mr. Jones and had been ill for some time. She is survived by several children, including a daughter, Mrs. James Brown, of our neighborhood.

From the last week's news we also learned that Mr. and Mrs. Roy Watts are rejoicing over the arrival of a grandson, born to Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Petty.

It has been learned that a little oil activity has been going on the past week, or two, several have leased their land, and a well is being drilled on the Clarice Gentry farm, occupied by the Winslow Grays.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner returned from California last Tuesday night, after attending funeral services Monday morning for his brother, Edgar Joiner, La Puente, California. They were accompanied by a brother, Winifred, of San Antonio, and the sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kee of Lubbock. Mr. Joiner's death was unexpected, although he had been in failing health for some time. Another brother, Oliver, of Yuma, Arizona and his son, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Joiner, also were present.

Mr. Joiner was laid to rest in the beautiful Rose Hill Cemetery out of Whittier, California, funeral services being held in the chapel situated in the cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Gray are entertaining their little grandsons, Bruce and Barry Johnson, of Amarillo, while their parents are on vacation. The men of all the surrounding communities plowed Mr. Roy Smith's cotton last Saturday morning. Mr. Smith is still in the hospital in Anson, but was able to be brought out to the farm to greet the friends that had gathered to help him out.

Visitors of the Winslow Grays recently were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gray, of the Los Angeles vicinity, a brother of Mr. Gray. Accompanying them was a grandson, Donnie Grabbe, and a niece, Beverly Mackey, both of the same vicinity in California.

Another visitor of the Grays from California, is a nephew, Kenny Gray, son of Doyle Gray, a former resident of the Fairview community.

Sunday of last week, Mr. and Mrs. Daine Bearden, of Brownfield, came to visit after church, with the Derrel Lewis family.

Other visitors were Mrs. Lewis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ray, of Lubbock, they having spent Friday night with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Joiner and children and Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Hollaway and daughter, all of Odessa, spent the fourth in Hamlin with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Durham. Two other daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Armstrong and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Troy Rodgers and children, who almost completed the family reunion.

The Rev. and Mrs. Derrel Lewis and children ate lunch with Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin and Linda Sunday.

Late Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin went to Stamford to see his aunt, Mrs. Kate Goodwin, who is very seriously ill.

Mrs. E. A. Henry also received word last week that on eof her sisters was very ill in the Haskell Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ray, of Anson, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner Sunday afternoon.

Fire destroyed the garage on the farm of H. L. Ford, the former Fletcher place last Friday morning. Inside was a car belonging to the James Brandons, occupants of the place. Both were a total loss.

'Trip Tip' Booklet Now Available

A booklet containing helpful "Trip Tips" for the motor traveler is being offered free by the American Fore Loyalty Group insurance companies. It is published by the companies as a public service and contains practically no advertising other than the Group's identification.

The 40-page booklet includes three handy checklists: "Is Your Car Ready to Go?", "Is Your House Ready for You to Go?" and "Is Your Family Ready to Go?" It also contains helpful information on how to avoid accidents and what to do if one occurs; general safety pointers; and some good advice on dessert and hot weather driving, driving in the mountains, and night driving. Other sections deal with traveling in Canada and Mexico; planning adequate insurance protection; laws regarding pets, speed limits and traffic signals.

All the information is presented in clear, concise form, and is indexed for quick reference. The booklet fits easily into a car's glove compartment. More than 2 1/2 million copies of "Trip Tips" have been distributed since it was first published nine years ago. The booklet was revised and brought up to date with each printing.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hallmark of Amarillo, are living in Hamlin for the summer and visiting their parents, Mrs. Cora Hallmark and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Briscoe. Hallmark is a physical education instructor in Amarillo Public Schools. He is working with the Celotex Corporation while here.

2 MILLION DOLLARS 'WASTED' ON CEANING UP HIGHWAYS

AUSTIN—Almost two million dollars—funds that could have built 72 miles of farm-to-market roads or 24 miles of two-lane primary highways—had to be spent by the Department to remove litter from the highways and repair vandalism damage last year.

This is much like a man throwing trash in his own yard and then paying someone to pick it up, for Texas motorists are covering the "front yards" of their state with a trail of trash and then "footing the bill" to have it cleaned up. Last year the Highway Department had to spend $1,344,000 to remove this unsightly and unsanitary mess from the roadsides.

In addition, sign vandalism accounted for another $385,900. Other vandalism totaled $70,000 bringing the total for the litter removal and vandalism to $1,799,900.

Vandalism, according to the Highway Department classification, covers such items as damaging and destroying signs and sign supports, marking on structures, and damaging safety rest areas (roadside parks). Litter includes beer cans, watermelon rinds, bottles, wrappers, newspapers, milk cartons and cigarette packages.

The litter problem is more or less localized to certain sections of highways along the more heavily traveled routes and the urban areas. It is believed that people are more likely to throw trash from their cars when they travel the same route every day. Also, roads leading from "wet" counties to "dry" counties come under heavy bombardment of cans and bottles.

At the present time, well-traveled federal and state highways are cleaned about three or four times a year, farm to market roads once or twice a year. Freeways in the urban areas require much more mowing and cleaning.

Highway engineers are constantly seeking new methods or machines that will help to remove the mess from our highways, but so far the only satisfactory method has proved to be the man with the stick.

WADE-GREENWAY VOWS READ IN GEORGIA CEREMONY JUNE 30

Anne Nichols Wade and Dr. Larry Don Greenway were married Saturday, June 30, at 7:30 p.m. in a double ring ceremony in Scott Memorial Chapel in Decatur, Georgia.

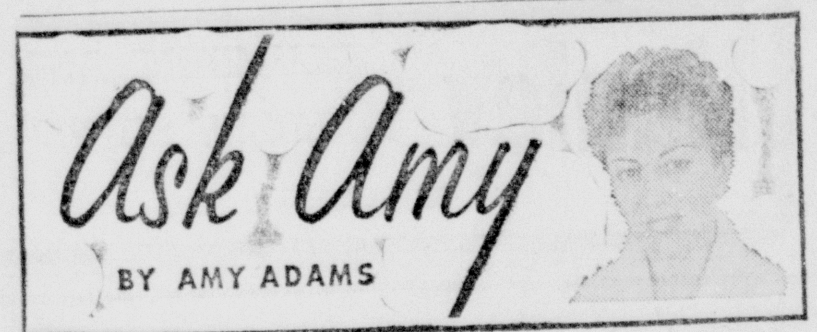

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pickens Wade Jr., of Decatur, Ga. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Greenway of Graham and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Greenway and Mrs. J. S. Dickey and the late Mr. O. K. Wilson, all of Hamlin.

Dr. James Davison Phillips, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. Douglas Roach Beard, cousin of the bride, were officiating ministers.

Pat Munro, Dallas, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. David Fletcher, Waco; Marilyn Morgan, Dallas; Mrs. Neil Kain, Atlanta, Ga. and Mrs. Garrett Briggs of Madison, Wis.

J. D. Greenway was best man for his son. Ushers who also served as groomsmen were Andrew Pickens Wade III, brother of the bride, Dr. David King Fletcher of Waco, Dr. Charles Bliss Shuey of Dallas and Dr. Thomas Meredith of Atlanta.

The bride, presented in marriage by her father, wore a gown of candelight satin designed on princess' lines with re-embroidered alencon lace and seed pearls forming the scalloped portrait neckline and extending over the shoulder. The skirt featured a front panel of re-embroidered alencon

WONDERFUL PEOPLE... COME AGAIN!

Dear Amy:

I have a girl friend whom I like very much but she has faults that I can't stand.

I recently bought a home and she and her husband came to visit us. She started right away telling me how to arrange the furniture and where to hang the pictures on the wall. She didn't like where I had them... but I did! And her husband started looking and inspecting the house. I wouldn't mind if I thought they were trying to help us arrange the house, but they have always done this during the ten years we have known them.

She never likes what I buy, no matter what it is. If I buy a dress or anything new, she immediately asks me where I bought it and how much I paid for it. Even if she doesn't like it, she could be nice.

Outside of these faults they are wonderful people. Before my husband tells them plenty, I would like your advice on how to let them know without hurting them (even though they hurt us).

Very Hurt

Dear Hurt:

After ten years of being insulted by these "wonderful people," it's time your husband took over the telling. Let him!

Dear Amy:

I am getting married this summer and have a few questions to ask. I have a wedding etiquette book but am still in need of your advice.

Am I supposed to send a written invitation to the minister and his wife, the organist, and the singer?

Also, when we have the wedding rehearsal, am I supposed to ask the reception helpers to be there too? I am very confused about the whole matter.

Janice K.

Dear Janice:

A wedding invitation is always sent to the minister and his wife. It is not necessary to send one to the organist and singer. The reception helpers are not invited to the wedding rehearsal as this is only for those people who are going to take part in the actual ceremony.

Dear Amy:

I have been going with a boy for 1 1/2 years. I am 17. My problem is that I have never met his parents. He comes to see me three times a week and then mostly on Sundays. I have been to visit his sister a few times. He never mentions much about his parents or home life.

Do you think I should mention that I would like to meet his parents or wait till he decides to take me?

Kaye

Dear Kaye:

A girl never "suggests or pushes" to meet a boy's parents. She waits until he offers the invitation. Most boys don't take girls home to meet their parents unless they are serious about the girl and they want their parents' approval of her.

Bide your time. Perhaps the boy is not ready to "take you home" yet.

Dear Amy:

A question has come up and I would like a third party's opinion before going ahead with what we plan. We are contemplating a long trip with my mother-in-law, taking my husband's car, and going fifty-fifty on expenses for the trip.

The problem is my mother-in-law wants to tell us when to leave and when to come home. If she doesn't get her way she will make the trip miserable for all concerned. We both feel it is up to us to say as it is our car and we don't want to be rushed on our vacation. She is a wonderful person and we wouldn't want to hurt her feelings but shouldn't she show some consideration toward us too? The question is should we tell her how we feel? What is your opinion?

Frankly Bewildered

Dear Bewildered:

The three of you sit down and plan the agenda. Let your husband tell her when HE plans to return. If this is agreeable to her, fine. If not, let HIM tell her otherwise.

Please address all letters to: AMY ADAMS c/o THIS NEWSPAPER For a personal reply enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

lace and was designed with a pleated back extending into a chapel train.

Her bouffant veil of illusion was attached to a pearl tiara. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and ivy which encircled a yellow throat orchid.

Bridal attendants wore sheath dresses of yellow organza over taffeta designed with round necklines, tiny horizontal folds on the bodice and an organza panel in the back. Their nosegays were of yellow roses and daisies.

A reception followed in the church parlor. Members of the houseparty were Mmes. John Nichols Beard, Kenneth Gilchrist, Richard Ewers, Bricken Burns Andrew Pickens Wade III, and Misses Pattie Newton, Virginia Vance and Suzanne Haile, all of Atlanta.

Out of town guests included Carl F. Greenway of New York City, N.Y., an uncle of the bridegroom.

When leaving for a wedding trip to New Orleans, La., Florida and Texas, the bride was wearing a royal blue silk linen

SOUTHERN PART OF COUNTY TROUBLED WITH BOIL WEEVILS

Overwintered boil weevils are destroying early fields of cotton in the Hodges, Noodle and Hawley areas in Jones County, according to word this week from County Agent Kirby Clayton. In some fields infestation counts run 100% and unless precautionary meaasures are taken now, considerable damage will result from the rapid buildup.

In all fields of early cotton where weevils were a threat last year, Clayton recommends two automatic applications of a recommended insecticide at 6-7 day intervals.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex.—That "safe driver insurance plan" with its penalty points for traffic law violators and accidents goes out the window August 1.

State Board of Insurance bowed to legislators' demands that it be greatly modified. But Board members felt it would be better to scrap the whole thing, and try to work out some other plan for later adoption.

Most Texans will find that the abandonment of the merit rating plan will cost them money. This despite the fact that insured Texas car-owners taken as a whole will pay $10,000,000 less for car insurance in the coming year than they did this year.

However, two-thirds of the car owners—those who have been getting 20 per cent discounts because they had no accidents or reported traffic convictions—will pay the full rates in the year ahead. The other one-third—those who have been paying as much as 100 per cent extra because of bad driving records—will save substantially. They will pay the same rates as everyone else.

One factor in the decision to drop the plan was concern by members of the Board—and the insurance industry—over the increasing number of car owners who just were doing without insurance. Board members felt that to increase the penalties, which would have been necessary to maintain the 20 per cent discount for the "safe drivers," would drive even more people into un-insurance. This would have made the safe driving plan even more out of balance statistically.

Because auto insurance rates are set by counties, and by types of cars and the age groups of drivers, it is not possible to say just what effect the rates will have. Local insurance agents soon will have the information.

SCHOOLS' ALLOTMENT CUT—State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert advised the Texas Board of Education that the Available School Fund's income for the 1962-63 school year should be $197,058,604. The revenue is reaped from ad valorem taxes, poll taxes, interest on securities the school fund owns, motor fuel taxes, omnibus taxes and other revenue.

Board deducted $8,737,536 to finance cost of purchasing and handling textbooks, and divided the balance between Texas' 2,387,234 children of school age.

So, the public schools will get $78.50 per child next year; $2 less for each than they were allotted in 1961.

While the 21-member board was on the subject of money, it passed a $459,877,843 education budget for 1963, and offered State Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar a $4,000 annual raise through federal funds.

Edgar "declined the honor," saying he felt his three assistants are more entitled to supplements since they are directly concerned with administering federal programs.

So, raises from $11,000 to $13,500 were voted for L. R. Graham, assistant commissioner of administration; Lee J. Wilborn, assistant commissioner for instruction; and M. A. Browning, assistant commissioner for vocational education.

Then the board agreed to ask the 58th Legislature to raise Edgar's salary of 18,500 a year to $24,000 when it convenes in January.

CREAM OF THE CROP—

A preliminary glance at the Texas Education Agency's survey of 80,000 teachers revealed that the state's public schools system is getting the "cream of the crop" of high school graduates. Study chairman R. W. Byram of Austin said that new teachers came from the top 25 per cent of their graduating classes.

But the distribution of education specialists seems to be uneven: All teaching colleges in the state graduated a total of only 80 language teachers last year, and only 12 per cent of those who took mathematics education degrees plan to teach, so schools will suffer shortages in those areas.

On the other hand, there's an estimated surplus of English and mathematics teachers. Almost all the college graduates who majored in those two subjects plan to teach.

"EXPATRIOTS" ON WAY TO DAKOTS—Spindletop V. Spindletop V and their children, Paysand and Gushie—a quartet of "geologists" prairie dogs—took a long trip to Bismarck, N. D., where they'll take up residence at the Dakota Zoo.

The prairie dogs were a gift of Acting Governor Culp Krueger, who decided "to uphold the honor of Texas prairie dogs" by sending four of the best he could find, after the zoo's president, Chris Dahl, asked for some.

Krueger assured the zoo that "these prize prairie dogs will feel at home and will dig right in and endeavor to be worthy of their Texas heritage," in a letter claiming the animals have built-in advanced seismographic training which should help in North Dakota oilfield explorations.

UNION COLLEGE COST JUMPS—Texas taxpayers are having to pay more and more to educate youngsters who attend the state's 32 public junior colleges, according to a report from State Auditor C. H. Cavness.

In the year ending August, 1961, they spent $223.67 apiece on 23,150 full-time student equivalents, but the per cent capita cost leaped $42.91 to an average of $266.58 for each 26,075 student equivalents—a total of $6,951,000.

Although 37,175 full and part-time students are actually enrolled in the state schools, the legislature bases its appropriations on the total number of semester taken, divided by 15, (a full-time course load).

Biggest share of the current appropriation of almost $7,000,000 went to San Antonio Junior College, which got $775,750 for its 3,323 student equivalents.

lents. Clarendon Junior College, which has 113 student equivalents, was 32nd on the list with .58 per cent share of $40,600.

"TAINT TRUE"—Railroad Commission Chairman William J. Murray Jr. surprised Capitol newsmen this week by issuing a denial of rumors about the East Texas Oil Field scandal before he even was asked about them.

He introduced, and then denied a rumor that the Railroad Commission has provided the major oil companies with damageable evidence against independent operators through inclination tests, but said Attorney General Will Wilson has "changed the rules" by accepting contributions for directional tests from the big oil firms, and providing information for them.

Murray also refuted rumors that some crooked-hole operators were under his protection. He admitted that he has friends among those under investigation, but stated he'd granted no favors: "I swear that I have treated them alike—independents and majors—and will continue to do so," he added. He further stated that he has not accepted money for campaign expense in any of the political races he's run since his 1947 appointment to the commission.

Regard a year-long delay in investigating illegal well deviation in East Texas, Murray moaned, "Why didn't I suspect it earlier? I had too much much faith in my fellow man."

BUSINESS BETTER THAN EVER—The seasonally-adjusted index of Texas business activity rose to a new all-time high of 137.1% in May, reported Dr. Francis B. May, statistician for the University of Texas' Bureau of Business Research.

High score reflects a seven per cent increase over April this year and a 12 per cent increase over May, 1961, according to Dr. May. He considers the sharp rise a potent reminder that the recovery from the 1960 recession has not yet spent its force.

DANIEL NAMES APPOINTMENTS—Gov. Price Daniel has made the following appointments to state boards: Kenneth Nelson of Diboll to the Board of Registration; Mrs. Mark Moody Northern of Galveston to the State Historical Survey Committee; L. E. Tension of Clifton; Walter Flack of San Antonio; and R. H. Taylor of Houston, to the Accountancy Board; Wayne Thode of Austin, Talbot Rain of Dallas, Zeb Rike of McAllen and Crawford Kerr and Edwin W. Carroll of El Paso to the Commission on Uniform State Laws.

MONEY-SAVING OPERATION — Refrigeration costs less because it's GAS! No moving parts to wear in the GAS cooling system mean lower repair costs and less worry than with compressor types.
